

Shortly before Entrust Capital combined with Permal, another legacy investment firm, it redesigned its cubicle-and-carpet Manhattan headquarters with a vibrant palette of Glacier White Corian, orange lacquer and polished stainless steel and chrome. Highline conference tables, custom reception center and executive suites are featured throughout.

Top: Reception center wrapped in curved Glacier White Corian. Left: Highline conference table with polished chrome center field technology, clear back painted orange glass. Right: Custom workstations in curved Corian®. Atypical workstations, fused together with glass privacy screens and oak cabinets for a seamless, more organic look. The CEO's custom Corian credenza echoes the color and organic shapes that unify the reception areas, meeting rooms, and offices.